COINER'S DEPARTMENT.

Mint of the United States

AT PHILADELPHIA.

April 30th 1879.

Hon. A. London Snowden,
Superintendent.

Sir;

that on the 23rd of January last I nominated and recommended for appointment to the position of an Adjuster, Miss Lorenza Schmidt, to fill the place made vacant by the death of her sister Christiana. There was no action taken upon this nomination, by the then Superintendent, until the last week in February, when he made the appointment, and forwarded it for the approval of Acting Director Preston.

I was verbally informed, that the latter hesitated to approve this action of a retiring Superintendent, immediately preceding the entry of yourself in that capacity, and especially especially as the appointment was made to take effect after your installation as Superintendent. The matter still remains in abeyance, and I now have the honor to request that some action may be had in the premises. I know personally, that Miss S[illegible] [illegible] nature that she is compelled to seek employment. Her sister was the mainstay of the family. Her father and mother are both old and feeble - utterly unable to do anything for their own support.

RG104 E-1 Box 116

Trusting that now, as an opportunity presents itself in the resignation of Miss Susan Wade, that you will approve the nomination of Miss L. Schmidt, held by the Director in abeyance. I am Sir.

Very Respectfully
Your Obt. Servant
R. C. Bothwell
Courier.

RG104 E-1 Box 116

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 116

Coiner's Department.

Mint of the United States
At Philadelphia.
April 30, 1879

Hon. A. Loudon Snowden,
Superintendent.

Sir;

[Illegible text] that on the 23rd of January last I nominated and recommended for appointment to the position of an Adjuster, Miss Lorenza Schmidt, to fill the place made vacant by the death of her sister Christiana. There was no action taken upon this nomination, by the then Superintendent, until the last week in February, when he made the appointment, and forwarded it for the approval of Acting Director Preston.

I was verbally informed, that the latter hesitated to approve this action of a retiring Superintendent, immediately preceding the entry of yourself in that capacity, and especially as the appointment was made to take effect after your installation as Superintendent. The matter still remains in abeyance, and I now have the honor to request that some action may be had in the premises. I know personally that [illegible] nature that she is compelled to seek employment. Her sister was the mainstay of the family. Her father and mother are both old and feeble – utterly unable to do anything for their own support.

Trusting that now, as an opportunity presents itself in the resignation of Miss Susan Wade, that you will approve the nomination of Miss L. Schmidt, held by the Director in abeyance, I am Sir,

Very Respectfully,
Your Obt. Servant
O.C. Bosbyshell
Coiner.